"Enhancing our youths' competitive edge through merit badges"

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

Requirements

1. Do the following:
 - a. Briefly discuss the historical origin and domestication of the dog.
 - b. Describe some common characteristics of the dogs that make up each of the seven major dog groups.
 - c. Tell some specific characteristics of seven breeds of dogs (one from each major group), OR give a short history of one breed.
2. Point out on a dog or a sketch at least 10 body parts. Give the correct name of each one.
3. Do the following:
 - a. Explain the importance of house-training, obedience training, and socialization training for your dog.
 - b. Explain what “responsible pet ownership” means.
 - c. Explain what issues (including temperament) must be considered when deciding on what breed of dog to get as a family pet.
4. For two months, keep and care for your dog.* Maintain a log of your activities during this period that includes these items: feeding schedule, types of food used, amount fed, exercise periods, training schedule, a weekly body weight record, grooming and bathing schedules, veterinary care, if necessary, and costs. Also include a brief description of the type of housing/shelter arrangements you have for your dog.

*The activities used to fulfill the requirements for the Dog Care merit badge may not be used to help fulfill requirements for other merit badges.

5. Explain the correct way to obedience train a dog and what equipment you would need. Show with your dog any three of these commands: “come,” “sit,” “down,” “heel,” “stay,” “fetch” or “get it,” and “drop it.”
6. Do the following:
 - a. Discuss the proper vaccination schedule for a dog in your area from puppyhood through adulthood.
 - b. Discuss the control methods for preventing fleas, ticks, heartworms, and intestinal parasites (worms) for a dog in your area from puppyhood through adulthood.
 - c. Explain the importance of dental care and tooth brushing to your pet’s health.
 - d. Discuss the benefits of grooming your dog’s coat and nails on a regular basis.
 - e. Discuss with your counselor any seasonal conditions (like hot summers, cold winters, or extreme humidity) where you live that need to be considered for your dog.
7. Do the following:
 - a. Explain precautions to take in handling a hurt dog.
 - b. Show how to put on an emergency muzzle.
 - c. Explain how to treat wounds. Explain first aid for a dog bite.
 - d. Show how to put on a simple dressing and bandage the foot, body, or head of your dog.
 - e. Explain what to do if a dog is hit by a car.
 - f. List the things needed in every dog owner’s first-aid kit.
 - g. Tell the dangers of home treatment of a serious ailment.
 - h. Briefly discuss the cause and method of spread, the signs and symptoms and the methods of prevention of rabies, parvovirus, distemper, and heartworms in dogs.
8. Visit a veterinary hospital or an animal shelter and give a report about your visit to your counselor.
9. Know the laws and ordinances involving dogs that are in force in your community.
10. Learn about three career opportunities for working with dogs. Pick one and find out about the education, training, and experience required for this career, and discuss this with your counselor. Tell why this profession interests you.

Acknowledgments

The Boy Scouts of America thanks Rob Hilsenroth, D.V.M., for providing his time and expertise to this new edition of the Dog Care merit badge pamphlet. Dr. Hilsenroth serves as executive director of the Morris Animal Foundation in Englewood, Colorado. The Foundation helps fund humane animal health studies that are conducted at veterinary institutions worldwide.

Thanks also to Merit Badge Maintenance Task Force member Steve Bowen, D.V.M., for taking a special interest in this updated edition and providing his time and expertise to help make the pamphlet fun, appealing, and enriching to Boy Scouts. Dr. Bowen is a practicing veterinarian in El Centro, California.

The Boy Scouts of America is grateful to the men and women serving on the Merit Badge Maintenance Task Force for the improvements made in updating this pamphlet.
