BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

Reading

1. Do EACH of the following:
 - (a) Take a tour of a library. Discuss with your counselor how the library is organized and what resources and/or services are offered in the library.
 - (b) Learn how to search a library's card catalog or computerized catalog by author, title, and subject.
 - (c) In a library, search the card catalog or computerized catalog for six books of four different types, such as poetry, fiction, nonfiction, and biographies.
 - (d) With the assistance of your merit badge counselor or the librarian, see if you can locate on the shelves the six books you selected.
2. Do EACH of the following:
 - (a) Identify a book you have enjoyed. Find out what other books the author has written.
 - (b) Look at one or more "best books" lists. These can be based on year, subject, or even all time. Identify at least one book you would like to read.
3. Read four different types of books, such as poetry, fiction, nonfiction, or biographies. Do any ONE of the following for each book you have read:
 - (a) Write a review of the book. Include what you liked/didn't like about the book. Include if you would recommend this book, and if so, who might enjoy reading it.
 - (b) Watch a movie based on the book. What was the same between the book and movie? What was different? Which did you enjoy more? Discuss this with your merit badge counselor.
 - (c) Give a "book talk" to your class, troop, or patrol.
4. Read a nonfiction book or magazine that teaches you how to do something like cooking, wood-building projects, video game design, science experiments, knot-tying, etc. With your counselor's and parent's or guardian's permission, complete a project from the book. Share your experience with your merit badge counselor. Reading a merit badge pamphlet will not count toward completing this requirement.
5. Read about the world around you from any two sources: books, magazines, newspapers, the internet (with your parent's or guardian's permission), field manuals, etc. Topics may include Scouting, sports, environmental problems, politics, social issues, current events, nature, religion, etc. Discuss what you have learned with your counselor.

6. With your counselor's and parent's or guardian's permission, choose ONE of the following activities and devote at least four hours of service to that activity. Discuss your participation with your counselor.
- (a) Read to a sick, blind, or homebound person in a hospital or in an extended-care facility.
 - (b) Perform volunteer work at your school library or a public library.
 - (c) Read stories to younger children, in a group or individually.
 - (d) Organize a book swap in your troop, school, or place of worship.
 - (e) Organize a book drive to collect books. Donate them to an organization in need.

Reading Resources

Scouting Literature

Boy Scout Handbook; Fieldbook; Stories for Around the Campfire; More Stories for Around the Campfire; The Gospel of the Redman; Learn to Fly-Fish in 24 Hours

Visit the Boy Scouts of America's official retail website at <http://www.scoutstuff.org> for a complete listing of all merit badge pamphlets and other helpful Scouting materials and supplies.

Book Lists

Book lists or reading lists are put together every year by readers, librarians, and others who know books. Your school or public library will have lists to get you started. Many lists are published on the Web; the Internet address of some are given here. Also ask your librarian or teacher for a list of books that have won (or are competing for) your state's awards for children's and young adult books.

Bookshare has signed a memorandum of mutual support with the Boy Scouts of America that emphasizes an ongoing relationship to provide Scouts and their leaders access to an electronic library of key Scouting publications. Individuals with disabilities can have resources like the Boy Scout Handbook and dozens of merit badge pamphlets at their fingertips—on their PCs, smartphones, and e-readers via audiobooks, or can hear books being read as words are highlighted on a screen. These resources can even be accessed using a Braille “reader”—a display that can be hooked up to a computer to generate a Braille translation.
