Scouting Alumni Association

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

REMEMBER . . .

- The smell of smoke from a crackling campfire and stars like diamonds reflected on a still, dark pond
- Hot days at the camp waterfront, splashing with your friends, cooling down, and having fun
- That special meeting when all of your hard work suddenly became the next rank or achievement
- The Scout leader who was always ready to listen and offer advice

REKINDLE your . . .

- Memories by creating experiences for the next generation of leaders, as others did for you
- Energy by building new opportunities for today's youth
- Scouting skills by developing youth who are the future of our communities and country
- Scouting spirit by gratefully giving back to Scouting
- Community service through Scouting-sponsored projects

RECONNECT with the ...

- Friends of your youth
- Organization where you developed as a team member and leader
- Values and fun of Scouting

REINVEST your ...

- Personal or professional expertise to generate the Scouting program of today and tomorrow
- Passion and enthusiasm for Scouting by being a “champion” for the Boy Scouts of America
- Time as a special activity volunteer or even as a registered leader
- Resources in supporting Scouting financially—at whatever level you are comfortable
