

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA®

All Commissioner Newsletter

Finding Your Thing

Scouting offers a variety of opportunities to serve. Regardless of an individual's gifts, there is a role that will enable them to help us serve more youth better through Scouting. Perhaps the greatest challenge is helping others find the role that is best for them.

READ MORE

Organizing Commissioner Teams

In the coming month, we will introduce a new guide, titled "Organizing Commissioner Teams," designed to assist administrative commissioners—such as district and council commissioners—in developing strategies for unit service that best support their local areas. This guide offers suggestions for customization and serves as a starting point for creating a tailored organizational structure.

READ MORE

New Roundtable Commissioner Patch

The roundtable team is excited to announce that we have listened to your feedback and we are simplifying the roundtable commissioner positions and patches. Going forward, commissioners will register as a roundtable commissioner or an assistant roundtable commissioner. The roundtable commissioner position will include those who serve as program-level specific roundtable commissioners, and those who serve in a more general capacity.

READ MORE

Camping Guideline Updates

Webelos and Arrow of Lights have separate rules for camping

READ MORE

Cub Scouting Great for Families

A mom shares how Cub Scouts is the ideal fit for her family

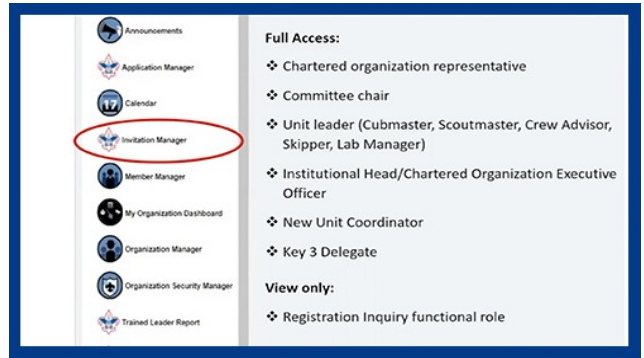

READ MORE

Commissioners Make A Difference

Input from commissioners is needed for this promotion

READ MORE

BeAScout.org Receiving Record Action

Unit leaders need to check leads often for quick response

VIEW HERE

Commissioner Week at Philmont Training Center

Registration is open now for June 8 - 14, 2025 event

READ MORE

Scouting America Recruitment Ambassador

Pro RB David Montgomery invites families to join Scouting

READ MORE

You have questions? Commissioners have answers!
Reach out by email: commissionerserviceteam@scouting.org

Prepared. For Life.®

