

12—UNIT CHARTER RENEWAL

Scouting is unique among youth organizations. One of its most unusual characteristics is that it doesn't own or operate Scouting units. The ownership of packs, troops, teams, and crews is vested in other community organizations or groups that generally have as their main activity something other than Scouting. Representatives of Scouting approach these organizations and convince them of the value of owning and operating one or more units. The Scouting movement provides the program, technical help, and special outdoor facilities. The chartered organization provides an adequate, safe meeting place and dedicated, capable adult leadership, and adheres to the principles and policies of the BSA. Through the strength and wisdom of this arrangement, millions of youth have benefited from Scouting. Without this unique working association, the program would be costly and limited to a very few.

Service to Chartered Organizations—Year-Round

Provide year-round service to chartered organizations and their units so they are successful in achieving their objectives.

The professional Scouter serving the district should have an ongoing relationship with the head of the chartered organization. This relationship is built around personal visits which should be conducted at least once a year. On each of these visits the professional:

- Discusses the success or needs of the unit and begins the solution of any problems.
- Reviews the role of the chartered organization and the local council to help the unit be successful.
- Reviews key personnel to determine replacements, additional personnel, and recognition.

As a commissioner, you also help maintain a good relationship with the chartered organization and between the organization and its units. You help everyone see Scouting as an integral part of the chartered organization's program for youth. You also help facilitate congenial, constructive communication between unit leadership and leaders of the chartered organization. See Commissioner Helps for Packs, Troops, and Crews for specific actions by commissioners related to chartered organizations.

Renewing the Scouting Charter

Since 1916, when Congress granted a charter to the Boy Scouts of America, Scouting has granted charters to organizations. Scouting renews its national charter by reporting to Congress annually. Likewise, chartered organizations report to Scouting once each year to renew their local charters. As a commissioner, you are in an excellent position to help chartered organizations carry out their trust and renew their privileges and obligations. The commissioner is responsible for the on-time charter renewal of all assigned units.

Charter Renewal Process

OBJECTIVE

Provide a plan to reregister packs, troops, teams and crews on time with no, or minimal, losses in membership and adequate leadership.

THE PLAN

The National Council provides a service to councils that enables units to expedite the paperwork portion of the charter renewal process over the Internet. This option, launched from the council's website, provides a more accurate and efficient renewal for many units and for the local council.

This option changes only the paperwork of the unit charter renewal process, and it should be integrated with all of the person-to-person steps described below. They are still an important part of the process. Here's how it works (online activity in italics):

- ✦ At Least Four Months Before Renewal Date. The council prepares a unit charter renewal kit for each unit due to reregister, including a letter outlining the use of the Internet rechartering system, the council's website address, and the unit's unique access code.
- ✦ At Least 90 Days Before Unit Renewal Date. The district executive visits the head of the chartered organization to renew the Scouting relationship. This visit is an opportunity that they cannot afford to delegate to anyone else. In districts where all units have the same renewal date, district executives must start even earlier to complete all visits on time.

The meeting should be a face-to-face discussion, since the relationship concept is central to our mutual long-term success. The local council provides a computer printout of adults and youth members presently registered. This form serves as the charter application and is inserted into the prepared charter renewal envelope. The professional serving the district delivers the envelope to the key person in the chartered organization to carry out the steps of charter renewal.

Obviously, if problems are anticipated in the reregistering of the unit or there is other major corrective action to be taken, this visit should be held earlier so that positive action may take place prior to the renewal date.

The commissioner should keep the district executive advised of any matter which might affect the smooth renewal of the charter. Don't wait until charter renewal time to address major problems.

- ✦ Sixty Days Before Unit Renewal Date. Using the computer printout, the commissioner and unit committee conduct a membership inventory of currently registered youth and adults. All inactive members are listed and assigned to various persons who will visit or contact them to attempt to reactivate them. Be sure to brief the visitors/callers on what to say when they make their calls.

Every effort should be made to recruit additional youth and adults so that the unit can reregister with no loss in membership. Also, be sure to register any youth who are participating but are not yet registered.

The charter review date is set and officials of the chartered organization, the unit committee, unit leaders, and the unit commissioner or other district or council representative are urged to attend.

- ✦ Sixty to 45 Days Before Renewal Date. Units choosing to renew their charters online (Internet Rechartering) will select a person as their renewal processor. He/she will visit the local council's website, complete the steps through the submittal process, and print a revised charter renewal application to be brought to the unit's charter renewal meeting for review, discussion, and authorized signatures.

(To assist districts in this process, there is a report available to council employees with membership reporting capabilities titled Commissioner's Status Report. This report provides commissioners with the renewal status of each unit, including the date of first login, the current stage of the process completed, and date submitted. Two other reports that are available are the New Members Added Report and the Members Not Renewed Report. Both of these reports are designed to provide information to the district in an effort to follow up with new youth and dropped youth identified through the renewal process.)

- ✦ Forty-Five Days Before Unit Renewal Date. The commissioner and unit committee chairman conduct the charter renewal meeting. Also in attendance should be the chartered organization representative, executive officer of the chartered organization, unit leader, and all other unit volunteers. The executive officer of the chartered organization approves all volunteers and the unit leader certifies the youth to be registered.

During the meeting, additional changes may be made to the application. The renewal application with appropriate signatures and applications for new youth and adults (including appropriate fees) are all completed at this meeting.

All forms and fees are then delivered to the council office or the district's charter renewal turn-in meeting at least 15 days before the unit renewal date.

Units using a third-party unit management software program must submit both the signed hard copy and the computer disk with the completed charter renewal application. Proper registration fees and signed applications are also submitted.

- ✦ Following the Renewal Meeting. The council's registrar receives the charter renewal application, new youth and adult applications, and appropriate fees following the charter renewal meeting. If the unit has renewed its charter using the Internet, the registrar reviews this information online along with the hard copies from the unit charter renewal meeting. The registrar then creates the new charter and registration cards for the unit. The registrar mails the registration cards to the unit leader and makes the new charter available to the district for presentation by the commissioner.

- ✦ Thirty Days After Renewal Date. The commissioner makes a formal presentation of the new charter at an appropriate gathering of the chartered organization.

Please Note—Commissioners and professional staff must be sensitive to the fact that some units (for a variety of reasons) may need or choose to use the paper method for charter renewal. Do not criticize units that do not find the Internet method helpful; its use is optional. Help units use the option that is best for them.

FAILURE TO REREGISTER

If the unit fails to reregister on time, immediately discover who has the charter renewal forms and what is holding them up. Consult with your district executive. Hand-carry the forms through the reregistering process and bring them to your district executive.

How to Do a Membership Inventory

1. Appoint a unit adult to conduct the inventory.
2. You will receive computer printouts of all youth and adults registered during the past year.
3. Set a membership inventory date at a meeting of the unit. Before the inventory date, meet with unit leaders to discuss ways to make best use of the inventory.
4. At the unit meeting, the unit adult in charge of the inventory calls the roll. Following the unit meeting, the leaders and committee members meet. Absent or inactive members are coded on the unit copy only of the computer printouts. A review of the unit record book will supply information on recent attendance.
5. All absent or inactive members are assigned to various persons to contact them to determine if they are to be reregistered.
6. Unit leaders and committee members agree on a plan to recruit new adults and youth.

EXCERPT FROM THE DECLARATION OF RELIGIOUS PRINCIPLE

The Boy Scouts of America maintains that no member can grow into the best kind of citizen without recognizing an obligation to God and, therefore, recognizes the religious element in the training of the member, but it is absolutely nonsectarian in its attitude toward that religious training. Its policy is that the home and the organization or group with which the member is connected shall give definite attention to religious life.

Only persons willing to subscribe to the Declaration of Religious Principle and to the Bylaws of the Boy Scouts of America shall be entitled to certificates of leadership.

POLICY OF NONDISCRIMINATION

Youth membership in the Boy Scouts of America is open to all boys and young adults who meet the joining requirements.

Membership in Scouting, advancement, and achievement of leadership in Scouting units are open to all youths without regard to race or ethnic background and are based entirely upon individual merit.

Charter Presentation

The date of this ceremony is determined by the time of the receipt of the charter renewal application at the council service center. From four to six weeks should be allowed for the return of the charter. Membership cards are mailed to the unit leader by the council registrar according to the current national membership validation procedures.

If possible, stage the presentation under the auspices of, and at a regular meeting or activity of, the chartered organization. This serves to accentuate the character of the relationship, puts the organization in a better position to recognize its unit leaders, and assures attendance of the largest possible number of the organization's members.

The charter presentation belongs in the hands of the organization rather than the unit itself. There are members of the organization who will attend an organizational affair, but who will not be motivated to attend a meeting put on by the unit. It is important to capture the interest of as many members of the chartered organization as possible. Parents of youth members will be just as likely to attend in either case.

Each occasion must be considered individually, and circumstances will color the decision as to location of the ceremony. A unit consisting of youth of different religious faiths will require careful consideration, particularly if the organization is a religious one. Other things to be taken into account are personalities involved, available facilities, and community attitudes.

The charter should be presented to the head of the chartered organization unless that person directs otherwise.

COMMISSIONER'S ROLE

Guide the unit leadership and the chartered organization in setting up the ceremony. Select a time when the ceremony can take place at a meeting or activity of the chartered organization, if this is practical. Otherwise, make sure that the head of the chartered organization can be present at a special meeting of the unit.

You should help coordinate the program, making sure that many people are involved. Some of the assignments might be:

Chartered Organization Representative. Reserve meeting facilities. Make an appointment with the head of the chartered organization to be present and prepared to receive the charter. Invite members of the chartered organization to attend.

Committee Chairman. Invite parents. Involve committee members in the program.

Committee Members. Help unit leaders with parts of program (awards, ceremonies) and setup (decorations, seating). Plan refreshments.

Unit Leaders. Plan unit program around the charter presentation.

Many councils develop special teams to present charters within the district. Toastmasters clubs are a good source of personnel for charter presentation teams as well as chamber of commerce members.

This in no way should detract from the commissioner's role—only supplement it if the human resources can be found.

Participants in the charter ceremony should include the head of the chartered organization, the chartered organization representative, chairman and members of the unit committee, unit leaders and assistants, den leaders and Webelos den leaders (if a Cub Scout pack), youth leaders (if in a Boy Scout troop or Venturing crew), and youth members of the unit.

Be sure you have the new charter to present.

CHARTER PRESENTATION CEREMONY

This ceremony may be used at a meeting of a service club or as a part of a regular meeting of a chartered organization.

Note: A short inspirational message could be added to the following suggested charter presentation ceremony. Note that this ceremony is written for a troop, and must be adapted for use at a pack, team, crew, or ship charter presentation ceremony.

“Congratulations! Please accept your registration cards as members of the Boy Scouts of America.”

(Present registration cards.)

As members of this Scout troop, will you do your best to attend meetings regularly, provide help to your leaders, personally advance in rank, and demonstrate your willingness at all times to abide by the Scout Oath and Law? On behalf of the chartered organization, do you accept these responsibilities to be accomplished to the best of your ability? If so, please answer ‘We will.’ (All members of the troop respond.)”

As parents, you are expected to attend parents’ meetings of the troop, assist with needed transportation, provide leadership support when needed, and be willing helpers in time of need, in order to provide the troop with an outstanding program, quality leadership, and good parental support. If you are willing to do your best to support the leadership of the chartered organization and provide what help you can give to the program, please answer ‘We will.’ (All parents respond.)”

Charge to the Chartered Organization. “Will all members of the _____ (name of chartered organization) please stand?”

“You have heard the troop committee, the troop leadership, the Chartered Organization Representative, the youth leaders, members of the troop, and parents all pledge their support to the Scouting program in this chartered organization. May we ask you to cooperate with the Scout leadership chosen by your chartered organization and provide, whenever called upon, help to make this program a vibrant living part of the youth program and youth outreach of your organization? If so, answer ‘We will.’”
(All members of the organization respond.)

With the acknowledgment of this support, I am pleased to present to you the charter signifying your right to use the Scouting program for the year ahead in a way that conforms with both the rules and regulations of your organization and those of Scouting. On behalf of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, I present your charter and pledge the cooperation of the local district and council to help make the program a vibrant living part of your program for youth.

“I would also like at this time to introduce the volunteers (if these are present) from our district who will provide support to you. May I introduce (the district chairman, your commissioner and/or district commissioner, and any other visiting Scouters) who will help you carry out an effective program of Scouting for the year ahead.

“Thank you for the opportunity to present this charter and thank you for accepting Scouting as a program of action for your organization.” (Present the charter and turn the program over to the head of the chartered organization to make any remarks.)
