

Commissioner Encounter

(This is one example of how the game could be used.)

Directions: Walk around the room and introduce yourself to as many people as possible. Ask each person you encounter if they meet any of the descriptions listed on the sheet. Ask them to sign in the appropriate box. Each person that you encounter may only sign your sheet once! When you have a signature in every box, you win!

Has attended an Impact session	Is a first year commissioner	Is a roundtable commissioner
Has earned the Doctorate Knot Award	Has taught at a commissioner college	Has attended Philmont during Commissioner Week
Has earned Arrowhead Honor	Is a council commissioner	Has the received the Award of Excellence in Unit Service
Has earned a doctorate degree	Has attended a district commissioner staff meeting	Has completed Commissioner Position-Specific Training in the Scouting America Learn Center
Was never involved in Scouting as a youth	Has or has had a daughter in Scouting	Is having fun already

Change the criteria to meet the setting in which you wish to use this game.
How many different venues could you use it in? Countless!