

MCS 310 - Activity Cards

A parent who works from home several days a week.	A parent who can drive a trailer.	A parent who fishes regularly.
A parent who often asks, 'What can I do?'	A parent who stays at home with younger children.	A parent who homeschools their children.
A parent who seems to be knowledgeable about the latest camping gear.	A parent who seems to be constantly engaged in conversation with other parents.	A parent who seems to be very active on social media.
A current volunteer who always ensures that all is ready for the current event.	A current volunteer who appears to be a leader in the activities they participate in.	A current volunteer who seems to be able to explain tasks in a way that everyone understands.
A current volunteer whose children are also involved in sports.	A current volunteer who always attends roundtable.	A current volunteer who has a younger child, who is often a tagalong.