

The District Commissioner and Roundtables

The District Commissioner is responsible for all aspects of Unit Service, including roundtable. The district commissioner works directly with the district chair and the district professional as part of the district key 3. District commissioners take ownership of the district team of commissioners to ensure that all units are well cared for throughout the year.

- Roundtable commissioners and assistant roundtable commissioners are part of the District Commissioner's Staff and should attend and provide a Roundtable report at the Monthly District Commissioner's Staff Meeting.
- District Commissioners and ADC's for Roundtable provide direct support for the Roundtable Program within their District.
- The District Commissioner is overall responsible for all District Roundtables. They must be involved with supporting Roundtable if they expect their Roundtable Commissioner's to be successful.
- It is recommended that District Commissioners assign an ADC for Roundtable to support all of their program specific Roundtable Commissioners.
- The District can assist in supporting all aspects of Roundtable and Roundtable Commissioners should be encouraged to participate in the monthly District Commissioner's Staff Meetings.
- The three National program committees (Cub Scout Committee, Boy Scout Committee, and Venturing Committee) are responsible for creating the National program content of materials presented at roundtable, but the roundtable commissioners can also use other BSA approved materials too.
- Roundtable commissioners and their team are responsible for the execution of roundtable and creating an atmosphere that encourages relationship development among units of the district.
- Roundtable Commissioners are best suited for determining the needs of the district and using program content to meet those needs.

Neither the District Committee or the District Training Committee have jurisdiction over roundtables, but they can provide information on local district training and events for the Midway or provide the information to the Roundtable Commissioners.
