

Cub Scout Airlines Ceremony

NARRATOR: This is your captain speaking. Cub Scout Airlines flight number (Pack number) has just taken off for San Francisco, Denver, Chicago, New York, Atlanta, and is returning to (your city). We will be cruising at an altitude of 25,000 feet. The weather is clear and calm, and we are expecting a smooth flight.

While we are on board today, we want to recognize our youngest passengers, Lions (read names). Will these Cub Scouts and their families please come up to the bulkhead? We want to welcome you on board and congratulate you on earning the Lion rank. (Families present the rank patch to their Lions.) Please return to your seats and fasten your seatbelts.

Some of our passengers have been on board for about a year, and have earned the Tiger rank. Will these Cub Scouts and their families come to the front of the plane? (Call their names and have their families present the patch to their Cub Scouts.) Congratulations. Please return to your seats and fasten your seatbelts.

Some of our passengers have been on board longer, and have earned the Wolf rank. Will these Cub Scouts and their families come up to the front of the plane? (Call their names and have their families present the patch to them.) Congratulations. Please return to your seats and fasten your seatbelts.

Several passengers have earned quite a lot of frequent flyer miles and the Bear rank. Will these Cub Scouts and their families come up to the front of the plane? (Call their names and have their families present the patch to them.) Congratulations. Please return to your seats and fasten your seatbelts.

Some of our most experienced flyers are the Cub Scouts who have earned their Webelos rank tonight. Will the Webelos and their families please soar to the front of the plane? (Call their names and have their families present the rank patch to their Cub Scouts.)

Finally, we want to recognize our sky elite Cub Scouts who have Attained the apex level by earning the Arrow of Light rank. Will these Cub Scouts and their families come up to the front of the plane? (Call their names and have their families present the patch to them.) Congratulations. Please return to your seats and fasten your seatbelts.

Thank you for joining us on our Cub Scout Airlines flight today. At this time, please make sure all patches are securely fastened, all smiles are in the upright position, and any pride in your Cub Scout is stowed... nowhere—feel free to keep that with you at all times!

Thank you for choosing Cub Scouting as your path for character development, citizenship, personal fitness, and leadership. We know you have many options when it comes to amazing activities, and we're honored you continue to adventure with us. As you exit the ceremony this evening, please watch your step, gather all your accomplishments, and remember: the sky is not the limit when you live by the Scout Oath and Law.

We wish you clear skies, safe adventures, and many more miles on your Scouting journey. Thank you for flying Cub Scout Airlines flight number (Pack number), and have a wonderful night!
