

Knights of the Round Table Ceremony

NARRATOR: Welcome, brave knights, noble families, and honored guests! Today, we gather in our Cub Scouting kingdom to celebrate the achievements of our courageous knights who have worked hard on their quests. They have displayed bravery, skill, and determination worthy of special recognition!

First, let us call forth our new Lions. Will (name(s) of Cub Scouts earning their Lion rank) and their families please come forward? These young knights have shown great spirit and kindness, earning them the distinguished order of the Lion. With great pride and Scout honor, your families will now present you with your badge of knighthood! (Families present the rank patch to their Lions.)

Next, we welcome our Tigers! Will (name(s) of Cub Scouts earning their Tiger rank) and their families please come forward? These knights have been diligent in their training and adventures, making them worthy of the order of the Tiger. With great pride and Scout honor, your families will now present you with your badge of knighthood! (Families present the rank patch to their Tigers.)

Now, let's celebrate our brave Wolves! Will (name(s) of Cub Scouts earning their Wolf rank) and their families please come forward? These scouts have shown teamwork and perseverance on their journey, earning them the order of the Wolf. With great pride and Scout honor, your families will now present you with your badge of knighthood! (Families present the rank patch to their Wolves.)

Continuing on, we honor our mighty Bears! Will (name(s) of Cub Scouts earning their Bear rank) and their families please come forward? These brave knights have completed many great challenges, making them worthy of the order of the Bear. With great pride and Scout honor, your families will now present you with your badge of knighthood! (Families present the rank patch to their Bears.)

Next, we proudly recognize our Webelos! Will (name(s) of Cub Scouts earning their Webelos rank) and their families please come forward? These knights have prepared themselves for higher adventures and show great leadership, earning them the distinguished order of the Webelos. With great pride and Scout honor, your families will now present you with your badge of knighthood! (Families present the rank patch to their Webelos.)

And finally, we turn our attention to our extraordinary Arrow of Light Scouts who have completed their final challenges in the Cub Scouting kingdom and are ready to take begin a new quest on their Scouting adventure. Will (name(s) of Cub Scouts earning their Webelos rank) and their families please come forward? These remarkable young knights have shown exceptional character development, leadership, knowledge, teamwork, and commitment, and they are now worthy of the prestigious Arrow of Light. With great pride and Scout honor, your families will now present you with your badge of knighthood! (Families present the rank patch to their Webelos.)

NARRATOR: As we conclude this grand ceremony, remember that each of you carries the noble spirit of a knight within you. May your hearts be filled with bravery, your minds with wisdom, and your actions reflect the honor and friendships you've forged with our Pack. Just as the knights of old faced challenges with courage and camaraderie, so too will you embrace every adventure ahead. Keep your heads held high, your spirits strong, and always strive to do your best by being the shining light in your kingdom. Go forth, young knights, and let your legends be written!