

Cubmaster Minute

Title: Camping

The outdoors has always been a part of Scouting. We believe that the outdoors is the best classroom to teach life skills. It allows Scouts to put words like trustworthy, brave, and cheerful into acts. The outdoors is also a great way for all of us to get to know each other, make new friends, and strengthen our relationships.

I look forward to seeing you at our campout (give details). Good night, Scouts!