

CAMPFIRE SAFETY

Picking a Campfire Spot

At a campground, campfire should only be built in designated areas. TRUE or FALSE

A campfire should not be built if the weather conditions are very dry. TRUE or FALSE

A great place to build a campfire is in a designated fire ring or fire pit. TRUE or FALSE

If not using a designated fire area, the minimum number of feet away from tent walls, trees, and other flammable objects is:

5 feet

10 feet

15 feet

20 feet

Fires can be built on a hillside. TRUE or FALSE

Fires are best built on a windy day. TRUE or FALSE

Be Careful With Fire

You may only light a fire under direct adult supervision. TRUE or FALSE

The minimum number of feet debris and other flammable items must be away from the fire:

5 feet

10 feet

15 feet

20 feet

It is OK to play a game of tag around a fire. TRUE or FALSE

It is OK to start a fire and then leave and go on a hike. TRUE or FALSE

A fire should be completely out and cold to the touch before leaving the area. TRUE or FALSE

Champions for Nature

Where should firewood come from?

Home

Purchased at the grocery store

Purchased at the campground

It is OK to cut down a tree at the campground for firewood. TRUE or FALSE