

Before fishing at a specific location, you need to get this from the property owner.

You should never fish where people are doing this.

You must always have this type of supervision when fishing.

Check this before you go fishing.

You'll want to bring this essential piece of equipment to hold your fishing line.

This handy tool helps you remove the hook from the fish's mouth without hurting it.

Give this to people who are fishing nearby.

To catch fish, you'll need this special string, usually clear or colorful.

This sharp, curved device is what you attach to your line to catch fish.

This can really light up your night.

This long, wiggly creature, found in the soil,
moves without legs and is often slimy.

This popular picnic food, often grilled and placed in a bun, can also attract fish when used as bait.

This sandwich staple, often used with peanut butter and jelly,
is a surprising choice for catching fish.

This small, noisy tool can help you call for help in case of an emergency.

This item looks like something else the fish would like to eat, but it's not.

These hopping creatures, often found in your backyard, can make a tasty treat for fish.

Before you go outdoors, remember to apply this to protect your skin.

You should always have this handy kit in case of small injuries.

Fill this up before heading out, so you can stay hydrated during your outdoor adventure.

Pack this for a quick energy boost. You can even make it with your den.

Cub Scout Six Essentials

Types of Bait

Fishing Equipment

Fishing Safety