Be kind and respectful to everyone – Scouts, leaders, parents, and guests.

LISTEN WHEN OTHERS ARE SPEAKING AND FOLLOW DIRECTIONS THE FIRST TIME.

Help take care of our meeting place and clean up after activities.

Include everyone — no one gets left out of the fun.

Snacks are for eating, not for launching across the room.

If you make a mess like a raccoon, you must clean it up like a responsible Cub Scout.

Always try your best, even if something feels hard.

Be honest and trustworthy in everything you do.

Stay with the group
and follow safety rules.

USE KIND WORDS AND ENCOURAGING VOICES.

Keep your hands, feet, and objects to yourself.

USE KIND WORDS AND ENCOURAGING VOICES.

Be a good example of the Scout Oath and Law.

No howling like a wolf indoors unless it's an official celebration howl.

If you find a cool stick, you must resist
the urge to sword fight.

When someone needs help, switch into “Super Scout Mode.”

No pretending the floor is quicksand
during serious instructions.
