

Appendix A: Unit Resources

OUTDOOR ETHICS GUIDE GOALS AND EVALUATION

Name: _____ I served as Outdoor Ethics Guide from _____ to _____ (Date) (Date)

Mark how you think you performed each duty.	Agreed to do	Achieved	Not Achieved	Comments
Attended an outdoor ethics orientation course or Leave No Trace Trainer course
Earned the BSA Outdoor Ethics Awareness Award or Action Award (during tenure or prior to taking position)
Completed online Leave No Trace Awareness and Tread Lightly! courses
Demonstrated and taught the Leave No Trace and Tread Lightly! principles at two or more functions, events, or outings
Led the troop in reciting and understanding the Outdoor Code during meetings
Assisted Scouts at each rank in meeting advancement requirements that involve outdoor ethics concepts
Conducted an effective outdoor ethics program by coaching the patrol leaders' council on addressing outdoor ethics practices as they plan trips, outings, and events
Attended 25 percent of outings and provided feedback to the patrol leaders' council on outdoor ethics practices observed
Encouraged and assisted troop members and leaders in earning the Outdoor Ethics Awareness and Action awards
Facilitated reflection sessions after unit trips and outings that assessed how well the unit followed outdoor ethics principles
Encouraged unit to conduct a conservation project or participate in one with another unit, the district, or the council
Supported den chiefs by sharing outdoor ethics information to use in their designated den
Encouraged leaders and youth to attend an outdoor ethics orientation course, Leave No Trace Trainer course, and/or Tread Trainer course

Scout signature: _____ Date: _____

Turn in this self-evaluation to your Scoutmaster for approval on your position of responsibility.

Star Rank — Serves four months as the outdoor ethics guide.

Life/Eagle — Serves six months as the outdoor ethics guide.