

The Silver Buffalo Award

The Silver Buffalo Award, created in 1925, is bestowed upon those who give truly noteworthy and extraordinary service to youth. This award, Scouting's highest commendation, recognizes the invaluable contributions that outstanding American men and women render to youth. The service must be national in character and may or may not be directly connected with the BSA. To prevent embarrassment, the candidate should not be notified of the nomination. Nomination forms with no more than 2 recommendation letters must be submitted together electronically with this form to the National Council at awards@scouting.org no later than August 31 for recognition the following year.

RULES AND REGULATIONS of the BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Article X, Section 6, Clause 1
Silver Buffalo Award

The Boy Scouts of America may award the Silver Buffalo for distinguished service to citizens of the United States upon the following basis and procedure:

- a) These awards may be made each year.
- b) The award is made on the basis of noteworthy service to youth, of a national or international character, outside of the line of regular duty, either directly to or independent of the Boy Scouts of America.
- c) As evidence of the award there shall be presented: a suitable certificate, descriptive of the services rendered, duly authenticated by the Boy Scouts of America, pursuant to the action of the Executive Board; and a miniature Silver Buffalo, suspended by a red, white, and red ribbon to be worn around the neck.
- d) These awards shall be made at the meeting of the National Council or at a major function of the Boy Scouts of America, pursuant to the action of the Executive Board, which action shall be based upon recommendation to the Executive Board by the National Court of Honor, or by recommendations to the Executive Board by the president of the corporation and the Chief Scout Executive.
